

Dear Ms. Duarte

I have enjoyed having you as a teacher for the first semester of English. I think you are a great teacher! I will miss you. One thing that I would have to criticize in your teaching is that you need to toughen up. Don't begin with your nice side, begin with your tough personality because if you don't people will take advantage of you. I understand that it may be hard to be tough, but you need to show them you mean business, and that there's a time to be serious and a time to have fun. I hope that by saying this I don't hurt your feelings or disrespect you, but by teaching us the way you did you taught me that not only are there mean old teachers, but that there are teachers that are humans with real feelings like you. I also want to say sorry if I ever disrespected you or made you feel bad, and for the times you told me to be quiet and I didn't shut up. I honestly want to thank you for teaching me and the whole class what you know and what you are good at.

I WILL MISS YOU A LOT! I hope you can come and visit us sometime in the future. 😊

Sincerely,
♥ Virginia Clara ♥
